These notes are only additional material. The reading list in your syllabus ~~covers everything~~, if it is mentioned ~~in~~ chapter wise in your syllabus covers everything.
~~As of~~ Instead of simply copying from your textbook which is a cumbersome task and may not be very useful as it is Statistics, as of now I have attempted to refer ~~books~~ other than your textbook & to give you explanation/ or definitions of topics which ~~are~~ may not be in your school statistics syllabus ~~&~~ may be introduced the first ~~so~~ time here. Even if that's not the case, if you find the concept unclear, ~~please refer~~ you may go through this definition. ~~It~~ It will also share ~~other~~ names of other books in this space. This media/space may further be used for sharing ~~books~~ solutions of questions.
