MAKE YOUR IMPACT 4.0

April 4, 2024

Interview and Resume, Session 1

The Placement and Internship cell of Shivaji College, University of Delhi (under the aegis of IQAC) hosted a three-session event of “Make your Impact 4.0”, on 4th April 2024.

The first session focussed on ‘Interviews and Resumes’ and began at 11 am, in the auditorium to help students master interviews and resumes. A lot of students joined with active participation to make it a great success.

The Speaker of the session Ms. Apurva, is a human resources specialist with experience in soft skill training, personality development, and communication coaching. She talked about the significance of application tracking systems, or ATSS. She talked about the various components of a strong resume. She said that soft skills are important and that lengthy resumes are not required. She talked about how the interview is affected by your attitude and introduction. She also advised on how to list your advantages and disadvantages.

Ms. Apurva answered the students' questions towards the end. Additionally, the students were engaged and inquisitive, which made the lesson interactive.

Elevate And Engage: Group Discussion And Grooming, Session 2

The second session consisted of a “Group Discussion And Grooming Session” workshop on 4th April 2024 at 12:30 pm in the college auditorium. The session's speaker was Kirti Rana, IELTS and PTE Trainer at IAE Global. She is also a personal development mentor, certified by the British Council in BETT.

The Event was held in the college auditorium and began at 1 pm with more than 200 attendees and the anchors addressing the convenor and the college principal. The speaker proceeded with the session by introducing himself and explaining the purpose and steps in Group Discussions followed by the skills required for a group discussion. Students were interactive throughout the session. The speaker then moved on to focus on the list of sentences that can be used to start in different types of situations. She also explained the dos and don'ts of a group discussion and tips on how one can groom himself/herself.

Further, there was a Q&A round answering all the questions. The session concluded with a vote of thanks. In the end, a feedback form was distributed among the participants. The workshop was a great success.

Bridge The Gap: Supporting Growth Together, Session 3

The Placement and Internship Cell of Shivaji College, University of Delhi, hosted a workshop on “Make your Impact 4.0” on 4th April 2024 at 3:00 pm in College Auditorium intending to guide the students for career in their respective fields. The workshop commenced with an introductory remark and a welcome address for the speakers of the session.

This was an “Interact with your Peers” session, consisting of recent alumni as well as current students, who have secured placements and internships. The objective of the session was to help students learn from the tips and experiences of current and past members of the Shivaji College student fraternity.

Ms. Kanika Khatri, who is an audit assistant at Deloitte with more than 2 years of experience in this field, commenced the workshop by focusing on the aspect of having corporate experience and the significance it holds in our careers. She then moved on to providing real- life experiences to students and hence guiding them on one of the most crucial decisions of their lives.

The second speaker, Vrinda Sapra, a final year student currently pursuing Economic Hons, with the experience of many part-time and full-time internships including in EY. She patiently answers the doubts of students regarding internships.

The third speaker, Shaurya, a final year student currently pursuing Economic Hons, with the experience of many part-time internships including in the UN. She shares her experience of consistently checking up on the HRs on LinkedIn. She patiently answers the doubts of students regarding internships.

The students showed immense curiosity throughout the workshop, asking numerous insightful questions. It was a highly interactive session, reflecting their keen interest in shaping their future career paths.
