SHIVAJI BHOSALE Hindi Parliamentary debating competition

(from 14-01-2023 to 16-01-2023)

Shivaji Bhosle Hindi Parliamentary Debating Competition

Dictum, the Debating Society of Shivaji College, successfully and gracefully organized its annual Shivaji Bhosle Hindi Parliamentary Debate Competition from January 14-16, 2023. As one of the most prestigious and largest national championships in the Hindi speaking circuit, Shivaji Bhosle has 46 teams from all over Delhi and India participating. In the distribution circuit up to Delhi, Shivaji Bhosle is traditionally ranked first due to its excellent quality and high standard.

The Shivaji Bhosle event supported by ONGC once again attracted participants from various colleges of Delhi University as well as other reputable universities such as NLU Delhi, IIMC, IGNOU, as well as students from different provinces of the country. The competition was adjudicated by eminent Delhi University orators and scholars.

A three-day program began with an inaugural function on 14th January, in which Mr. Praful Ketkar, Editor-in-Chief of Organizer magazine and eminent speaker, was invited as the chief guest. The college principal, Prof. Shiv Kumar Sahdev, inaugurated the event on this day. On the first day, three league phases were conducted, and on the second day, (January 15), two more normal phases were conducted followed by the playoff phase. Quarter Finals, Semi Finals and finally Finals on the last day (16 January). The Sindhu team consisting of Aditya Kumar (Science Faculty, DU) and Rituraj Kumar (Arts Faculty, DU) won the three-day event, whereas the team representing IIMC consisting of Yashi and Abhiyankar Shukla finished second.

OUTCOMES	SPIC MACAY is a 45-year-old non-political, non-profit, voluntary movement amongst youth. The event brought students closer to our country's rich and intangible cultural heritage. The working of the society was described. The 4 pillars of SPIC MACAY (Artists, Institutions, Volunteers and Supporters) were mentioned. The students were also taught the spirit of volunteerism – of giving selflessly without expectation, a value that is intrinsic to our culture and important to nurture in today's world.

BRIEF REPORT:

Shivaji College, in collaboration with SPIC MACAY, (Society for the Promotion of Indian Classical Music and Culture Amongst Youth) organised a cultural evening with sparkling musical and dance performances on 24th of January 2023. The event was organised with the aim to generate and enrich the understanding of cultural heritage among the youth.

The first performance (11 am) was by Sh. Nityanand Haldipur, ranked among India's leading flautists. Born in Bombay in a deeply spiritual family, Sh. Nityanand ji was fortunate to have the right environment for his latent musical talents to blossom. His first guru who initiated him into the art, technique and aesthetics of flute-playing was his father, the late Shri Niranjan Haldipur - a senior disciple of the renowned flute maestro, the late Pandit Pannalal Ghosh. He is a senior disciple of the reclusive genius, Padma Bhushan Smt. Annapurna Devi representing the pure essence of a highly revered musical heritage. His wonderful performance left the audience spellbound. The sweet melody from his flute mesmerized the audience with the various ragas of Indian classical music. He was accompanied by an artist on tanpura and by Mr. Vinod Lele on tabla. Pandit ji also interacted with the young audience.

The second performance (2 pm) was by Ms. Gauri Diwakar, an acclaimed Kathak dancer and choreographer based in New Delhi. She has been trained by eminent Gurus including Pandit Birju Maharaj. She was accompanied by Sh. Yogesh Gangani on Tabla, Sh. Ayub Khan on Sarangi & Sh. Samiullah Khan on exhibition Cinedrome '23's model and ensure its flawless operation. Members constructed models of cameras, quills, and hangings and showcased their writing and photographing abilities. Additionally, a frame was made up to offer guests a platform for activities. They worked till the wee hours of the morning to get Cinedrome '23 ready, and they were successful. The outcome was quite gratifying; the audience appreciated and enjoyed the exhibition.

10th Apr '23 (Cinedrome Day 1)

- The members assembled all the models, set up the tent, and hung scripts and photographs within it for show. The competitions were held, and the members took the initiative to make sure they went off without a hitch.
- The audience was then informed by Mr. Raj Shekhar's experience in the Hindi film industry, and he exhorted the filmmakers to continue working in the sector. Following this, Mr. Ravi selected the winners after reviewing the short film submissions made both online and offline.
- CHALCHITRA - On the Spot Film Making Competition
- PELICULA-Online Film Making Competition

12th April '23 (Cinedrome Day 2)

- Everything that the participants had worked on the previous days was displayed during the exhibition. Beautiful photographs taken by both former and present members of the association were on display in the exhibition. The fellow script writers' writing was likewise amazing.
- Mr. Manish Jaisi, an old member of Shutterbugs, took the photographers through the process of mastering the art. He then declared the winners after going over the photography competition's online and offline entries.

ACRYLICA 2023

VIBGYOR, the fine arts society of Shivaji College, organized the seventh edition of its annual fest ACRYLICA '23 on April 24. The fest included four events: Sketch-Doo-Paint, an art battle of sketching, doodling, and painting; Polart, a Polaroid painting competition; Enchanted Forest, Vibgyor's very own exhibition; and Rangkari, a workshop on watercolor painting. Many students came in the morning and they put up hangings and set up the models properly. 43 students attended the workshop and learn new things and had lot of fun in the workshop.
