SHIVAJI COLLEGE, UNIVERSITY of DELHI

Department of Economics

Internal Test (Academic Year 2023-24)

Name of Course: Generic Elective (H) Economics Semester: IV

Name of the Paper: Indian Economy Faculty Name: Dr. Shivani Gupta

Duration: One hour

Maximum Marks: 12

Date of Test: 8 April, 2024

Answer anyone question.

Q.1 Critically evaluate Nehru-Mahalnobis model of development in terms of various challenges faced by policy makers at the time of inception of planning in India. (12 Marks)

Q.2 Elaborate on India's growth during 1947-1980 and 1980-2016. In which period was the economic performance better? Discuss. (12 Marks)

Faculty Signature: [signature]

Shivaji College, University of Delhi
Department of Economics
Assignment (Academic Year 2023-24)

Name of Course: Generic Elective (H) Economics — Semester: IV

Name of paper: Indian Economy — Faculty Name: Dr. Shivani Gupta

Date of Assignment: 5 March, 2024

Maximum Marks: 12

Answer following question:

Q.1 Discuss the impact of India's reforms since 1991 on the performance of the Indian economy. Also present critical policy challenges and future prospects for India. (12 Marks)
(M.S. Ahluwalia)

Faculty Signature:

Shivaji College, University of Delhi
Department of Economics
Continuous Assessment (Academic Year 2023-24)

Name of Course: Generic Elective (H) Economics
Semester: IV

Name of paper: Indian Economy
Faculty Name: Dr. Shivani Gupta

Date of assessment: March - April, 2024

Maximum Marks: 35

Answer all questions.

Q.1 Present a comparative perspective of Indian Economy. Highlight India's performance on socio-economic indicators. What lessons India can learn from within country. (Jean & Dreze) (20 Marks)

Q.2 Elaborate the Golden era and growth deceleration periods of Indian economy. Discuss future high growth scenario for 2020-35 in India. (Rakesh Mohan) (15 Marks)

Faculty Signature: