The event aimed to provide a platform for students to delve into the intricacies of contemporary business issues and market dynamics.

The Business Conclave was a resounding success, with participants lauding it as a highly enriching experience. The event aimed to provide a platform for students to hone their negotiation, diplomacy, and problem-solving skills within the context of contemporary business issues and market dynamics. The competition, which simulated diplomatic negotiations among delegates representing large companies, saw enthusiastic participation from students eager to immerse themselves in real-world business scenarios.

The event adhered to a set of well-defined guidelines and rules, ensuring a structured and fair competition. Students had the option to participate individually or in teams of up to two members, with each team comprising a director and a secretary. Company assignments were randomly allocated to teams, prompting participants to delve deep into researching their assigned companies to prepare for the challenges ahead.

Throughout the competition, teams engaged in rounds focused on different agendas, showcasing their strategic thinking and problem-solving abilities.
