LEARNING OBJECTIVES:	The seminar aims to explore leadership and management lessons from Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj's life, emphasizing strategic planning, ethical leadership, and adaptability. It seeks to foster critical thinking and inspire participants to apply these timeless principles in modern contexts.
OUTCOME:	Participants will gain insights into effective leadership strategies, enhancing their ability to analyze historical examples for practical application in contemporary management. They will develop critical and ethical decision-making skills, improving engagement through interactive discussions and competitions. Ultimately, attendees will leave with a deeper understanding of how Shivaji's legacy offers valuable lessons for today's dynamic business environment.

BRIEFREPORTOFTHEEVENT:

Management Lessons from Life and Work of Chhatrapati Shivaji 29th January, 2024

The Department of Commerce, in collaboration with the Department of Business Economics, organized a seminar titled "Management Lessons from the Life and Work of Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj" at Shivaji College, University of Delhi. The event, held on 29th January, 2024, commemorated the 350th year of Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj's legacy.

The seminar commenced with a warm welcome addressed by our host, expressing gratitude to the esteemed guests: Chief Guest: Professor Mandar Bhanushe, Principal: Professor Virender Bhardwaj, Teacher-in-Charge (Commerce): Mr. Rajesh Kumar, Teacher-in-Charge (Business Economics): Dr. Suman Kharbanda, Coordinator: Dr. Kiran Chaudhary, President of Student Society Kaizen: Tushita Mishra

Following the welcome address, the customary lamp-lighting ceremony was performed, seeking blessings from Goddess Saraswati, the embodiment of knowledge. Finally, our Principal, Professor Virender Bhardwaj addressed the audience, emphasizing the importance of the seminar and its potential to spark insightful discussions and fresh perspectives on leadership.

Professor Mandar Bhanushe, a renowned expert in education and a passionate advocate for mathematics education, was introduced as the keynote speaker. He delved into the topic, exploring how Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj's life and work offer timeless lessons in management. Prof. Bhanushe's talk explored management lessons from Shivaji's leadership. He highlighted meticulous planning, fostering team loyalty, ethical conduct, and adaptability as key takeaways. These qualities, from strategic planning to embracing change, resonated as valuable for businesses in today's world. Professor Bhanushe's speech was followed by an engaging interactive session where students actively engaged in discussions and posed questions.

Adding a layer of participation, Dr. Suman Kharbanda announced a competition for students. Inspired by the seminar's insights, they were invited to write a short essay on the management lessons they learned from the life of Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj. An attractive prize was awarded to the winning entry. The event didn't end there. Students were treated to a fun and interactive experience planned by the Kaizen - The Commerce Society of Shivaji College and the Forbes - The Business Economics Society of Shivaji College.

The event concluded with a sense of intellectual enrichment and a renewed appreciation for the timeless leadership lessons offered by the Maratha warrior king.
