

ACE of SPADE 2023

On 25th April 2023, the Annual Consortium for Excellence, the ACE of SPADE engraved the students into the realms of socio-economic dynamics of the world. The grand day was graced by Professor Kavita Sharma, Former Dean and Head of Department of Commerce, DSE, University of Delhi and Mr. Yash Aggarwal, founder PPI. The event kicked off with the lamp lighting ceremony by the distinguished speakers, followed by Professor Prabuddh's welcome speech to officially announce the commencement of the session.

The release of 'Arthmanthan' — the annual research journal of SPADE was one of the key moments of the day.

The guest speakers enriched the audience with the various experiences of their field, explaining how important it is to add value to any work at hand. Yet another picture perfect moment of the day was the launch of the documentary, Beyond 9 to 5: The rise of entrepreneurship in India! The day followed a series of fun filled and exhilarating games, Briz Brain Zilla, Cypher-bola and All Stars Bidding where participants emitted a great zeal and enthusiasm.
