Renowned heritage-enthusiast and author of Baolis, Shri Vikramjit Singh Rooprai, led a guided heritage walk, familiarising students with the literature, architecture and history of Delhi. Forty-four students along with the faculty participated in this event full of historical and literary insights. The event started at 10:30 am at the Rose Garden on the site with an introduction to the history of the Mehrauli archaeological park and concluded with an engaging tour of Rajaon ki Baoli situated in the heart of the park.

The students enjoyed an alfresco lunch amidst the lush green surroundings of the park.
